DRAFT / DELIBERATIVE

Dave,

We received the passback from OFR this afternoon. They have accepted the use of “(a)(1), (2), . . .” and the use of “notice” rather than “document.”

Mindy and Rose have reviewed. I reviewed independently and caught the same things they did and one additional inadvertent deletion (see edit and note on page 140 regarding the phrase “, or through one”). Most frustrating is that OFR staff made typos when they were attempting to incorporate our previous preamble edits from the last passback in several places (see pg 89, 123, 239). All of their errors have been corrected and noted.

I’m seeking your approval to pass this along to Sandy to pass to OP then OFR. This should be the final pass.

Thanks,
Owen
